

Dive the Exuma Cays Aboard The AquaCat

Nov. 3 -10, 2012

AquaCat's Itinerary;
There is no Fixed schedule.
The Captain will vary the itinerary to take advantage of the Best Weather and diving conditions. Most of their trips explore either the Exuma chain, or Berry Islands of the Bahamas. One evening midweek is spent in an out island port (typically Nassau) with other nights anchored offshore one of the many islands. We return to our docks on Friday evening, no set time is given as we go with the flow! If we return early, passengers often take cabs to explore the Nassau area.
